

CITY OF CORONADO
Mayor

RICHARD BAILEY
MAYOR PRO TEM

I am proud to have represented you on the City Council for the past four years. Now, I am asking for your vote to become the next mayor and lead Coronado forward.

My commitment to you is straightforward.

Put Residents First. I support reforming the Coronado Tourism Improvement District (CTID) to end city-sanctioned advertising to high-impact day-tourists.

Improve Traffic Safety. I will set a zero-tolerance policy for enforcing traffic violations and approve safety modifications on our busiest streets.

Continue Financial Responsibility. I will continue to balance our City's budget, pay down pension liabilities and vote against wasteful spending.

Implement Real Solutions. I will advance new technologies, such as, the traffic notification app, Nixle and streamline government services.

Increase Community Engagement. I will continue to seek your input through community town halls, online surveys, council meeting updates, and focus groups.

I have the right combination of experience gained as a member of the City Council and as a business finance professional, to lead Coronado forward with a fresh approach and energy to accomplish real results with Caltrans and the Navy. With your support I look forward to serving you as Mayor of Coronado.

Brad, per our conversation, I'm providing the information below based on further conversation today with Special Counsel. The pertinent sections are underlined and bolded. As I noted, I won't submit Richard's Nomination Paper or Candidate Statement to the Registrar's office until I have something from Richard justifying the ballot designation. An email from him would suffice.

Thank you.

CARRIE DOWNEY

Attorney/ Law Professor

My family and I have lived and worked in Coronado for 20+ years, including 9 years while I served my country as a Navy JAG Officer. My daughters: Rebecca, Charlotte, and Samantha Yim attended and graduated from Coronado public schools. I have gotten to know our community volunteering with community organizations and working at my Coronado law practice. I served as President of the Village Elementary School PTA, Coronado Junior Women's and Woman's Clubs, and Coronado Lion's Club. I helped form the Coronado Promenade Concerts Board and have served as your elected Councilmember for 10 years. The San Diego Association of Governments appointed me to chair the Environmental Committee overseeing for 9 years the lifetime TRANSNET expenditures of $850 million to preserve critical habitat during regional transportation construction.

Mayor Casey Tanaka, Mayor Tom Smisek, Mayor Mary Herron, and Councilmembers Mike Woiwode and Al Ovrom endorse me as the candidate with the leadership, education, and policy experience to lead Coronado. No one person can change public policy alone but I have a 20 year proven track record of listening to community needs and leading boards, organizations, the City Council, and regional nonpartisan efforts to implement real solutions. Thank you for your vote.
